

Heavenly Father,

As the storms of uncertainty and trouble rage around me, I place my trust in You.
I know there is a purpose in this trial and I am thankful You are here with me. I stand firm in faith, believing in Your power and knowing, without a doubt, that I will see victory through You on the other side. Please give me courage and peace in You today. Amen.